

Dwelling in the Word – Saturday March 4, 2023

Isaiah 43: 8-13

⁸ Bring forth the people who are blind yet have eyes,
who are deaf yet have ears!

⁹ Let all the nations gather together,
and let the peoples assemble.

Who among them declared this
and foretold to us the former things?

Let them bring their witnesses to justify them,
and let them hear and say, "It is true."

¹⁰ You are my witnesses, says the LORD,
and my servant whom I have chosen,
so that you may know and believe me
and understand that I am he.

Before me no god was formed,
nor shall there be any after me.

¹¹ I, I am the LORD,
and besides me there is no savior.

¹² I am the one who declared and saved and proclaimed,
not some strange god among you;
you are my witnesses, says the LORD, and I am God.

¹³ Indeed, since that day I am he;
there is no one who can deliver from my hand;
I work, and who can hinder it?

What resonated with you as you dwelled in this passage? Did the Spirit touch you with a particular word?

What does being the Lord's witnesses mean to you? How can you apply being a witness in your day to day life?

Where do you see God's promises in this passage? Is there a promise of trust in God relayed here as well?
