“Seeking Peace and Prosperity”

Jeremiah 29:7

“Also, seek the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray to the Lord for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper.”

Personal Time of Reflection: (15 minutes)

A Time of Unrest:

1. What kinds of things divide us in our current times?
2. When have you experienced a time of unrest in your life?
3. How do these times and seasons of unrest affect your spiritual life?

Seeking Peace and Prosperity:

1. What specific steps can you take to make a bridge of peace with someone with whom you disagree?
2. What benefits come when you seek peace and prosperity with others?
3. What is something God is nudging you to do to seek peace with another?

Questions for Consideration in Small Groups: Please respect confidentiality (20 minutes)

1. Name some of the things that divide us.
2. What steps can you take to bridge peace with someone who you might disagree?
3. How is God calling us to bring peace within our Presbytery?

If time, we will come back together and share with the larger group.

Here I Am to Worship

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness
Opened my eyes, let me see
Beauty that made this heart adore You
Hope of a life spent with You

And here I am to worship, here I am to bow down
Here I am to say that You're my God
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy
Altogether wonderful to me

King of all days, oh, so highly exalted
Glorious in heaven above
Humbly You came to the earth You created
All for love's sake, became poor

And here I am to worship, here I am to bow down
Here I am to say that You're my God
You're altogether lovely, altogether worthy
Altogether wonderful to me

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness
Opened my eyes, let me see
