Lectio Divina with Drawing

Read and reflect upon the following passage. Is there a word that pops out at you? Write that word in the center of the square. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thinking as you reflect upon that word. What other words or phrases come to mind? Write those words or phrases around your center word and allow your creativity to flow as you doodle around your words. Do you notice a pattern or a theme as you continue to reflect, write, and draw? What is the Spirit teaching you through this exercise about God in this passage? Share with others in your small groups.

Acts 8:26-31

26 Then an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) 27 So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship 28 and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." 30 So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" 31 He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him.
