

CONGREGATIONAL CONSULTANTS

Rev. Dr. Trace Haythorn

Trace has served 25 years in executive leadership grounded in the life of the church and faith-based organizations, including nearly a decade as ED/CEO of the Association for Clinical Pastoral Education.

Rev. Dr. Charles Wiley III

Charles has served in pastoral roles, as a denominational leader in the Office of Theology and Worship, and as a teacher in seminaries, congregations, and presbyteries.

Mrs. Jessica Lovelace

Jessica is a people-first HR and operations leader with over 20 years of experience helping organizations strengthen their teams, and navigate complex workforce challenges.

Rev. Courtney Arntzen

Courtney has extensive experience leading rural and college-town congregations, most recently specializing as a Bridge Pastor for communities in transition.

Rev. Greg Allen-Pickett

Greg brings over two decades of experience in congregational leadership, community engagement, and mission-focused ministry, as well as a background in business and non-profit operations.

Schedule a meeting
to find out more: call or email
Synergos Director Rev. Jessica Crane Munoz at 402-778-4136 or synergos@opsf-omaha.org

Synergos at Omaha Presbyterian Seminary Foundation

Synergos: Congregations in Transition program offers Live Zoom Consultant support and training for PCUSA congregational lay leadership in the Synod of the Rocky Mountains.
Find out more at tinyurl.com/churchesintransition