Dear Taxpayer:

We're responding to your request dated Jan. 19, 2024, about your tax-exempt status.

We issued you a determination letter in January 1964, recognizing you as tax-exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

We also show you're not a private foundation as defined under IRC Section 509(a) because you're described in IRC Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i).

Donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

In the heading of this letter, we indicated whether you must file an annual information return. If you're required to file a return, you must file one of the following by the 15th day of the 5th month after the end of your annual accounting period:

- Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
- Form 990EZ, Short Form Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax
- Form 990-N, Electronic Notice (e-Postcard) for Tax-Exempt Organizations Not Required to File Form 990 or Form 990-EZ
- Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as Private Foundation

According to IRC Section 6033(j), if you don't file a required annual information return or notice for 3 consecutive years, we'll revoke your tax-exempt status on the due date of the 3rd required return or notice.

You can get IRS forms or publications you need from our website at www.irs.gov/forms-pubs or by calling 800-TAX-FORM (800-829-3676).

Dear Taxpayer:

This is in response to your request dated Dec. 03, 2018, for information about your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate we issued a determination letter to you in January 1964, and you're currently exempt under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(3).

We also recognized the subordinates on the list you submitted as exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(3).

For federal income tax purposes, donors can deduct contributions they make to you as provided in IRC Section 170. You're also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts under IRC Sections 2055, 2106 and 2522.

Because IRC Section 170(c) describes your subordinate organizations, donors can deduct contributions they make to them.

Please refer to www.irs.gov/charities for information about filing requirements. Specifically, IRC Section 6033(j) provides that, if you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked on the filing due date of the third required return or notice.

In addition, each subordinate organization is subject to automatic revocation if it doesn't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years. Subordinate organizations can file required returns or notices individually or as part of a group return.

For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit www.irs.gov or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you have questions, call 1-877-829-5500 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., local time, Monday through Friday (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific Time).

Gentlemen:

Your application for a group ruling, holding you and your subordinate units exempt from Federal income tax as organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, has been considered.

Based on the information submitted, it is held that you and your synods, presbyteries and churches whose names appear on pages 542 through 620 inclusive, of the May 1963 edition of part III of the minutes of your general assembly are exempt from Federal income tax as organizations described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as it is shown that you and your subordinate units are organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes.

You and your synods, presbyteries and churches are not required to file Federal income tax returns so long as a tax exempt status is maintained.

It will not be necessary for you and your synods, presbyteries and churches to file the annual return of information, Form 990-A, generally required of organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the specific exceptions contained in section 6033(a) of the Code are applicable.

Contributions made to you and your synods, presbyteries and churches are deductible by the donors as provided by section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts, to or for the use of you and your synods, presbyteries and churches are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes as provided by sections 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

The United Presbyterian
Church in the United States of America

You and your synods, presbyteries and churches are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless waiver of exemption certificates are, or have been, filed as provided in that Act. Inquiries about the waiver of exemption certificate should be addressed to your District Director. You and your synods, presbyteries and churches are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

For next year and each succeeding year thereafter, please send us the following information annually not later than forty-five days after the close of your annual accounting period:

1. Lists, arranged in alphabetical or numerical order, showing the names and mailing addresses of (a) your new subordinate units and (b) those which have ceased to exist or have changed their names or mailing addresses. One copy of the list should be furnished for use of this office and one additional copy for the use of each District Director in whose district one or more of your subordinate units are located. Directories may be furnished in lieu of the lists referred to above if a directory is published.
2. A statement, signed by one of your principal officers, stating whether or not the information upon which your original group ruling is based is applicable in all respects to your new subordinate units.
3. A statement, if at the close of the year, there were no changes in your roster.
4. A statement of any changes in the character, purposes or method of operation of your organization or those of any of your subordinate units.

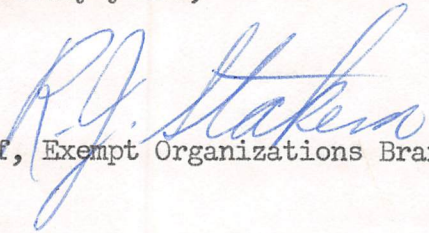

The United Presbyterian
Church in the United States of America

5. Duplicate copies of any amendments to the charters or bylaws of your organization or those of any of your subordinate units.

This ruling is not applicable to any of your subordinate units organized and operated in a foreign country.

The District Director in Philadelphia is being advised of this action.

Very truly yours,

Acting Chief, Exempt Organizations Branch
