

Brief Bio from Brandon Willett (To be Ordained)

Brandon is a native of Phoenix, Arizona but he has also lived in every state on the west coast, Kansas and Tennessee. He is the middle child of five siblings with two brothers and two sisters. Brandon graduated from Phoenix Christian High School in 1997, earned a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education and Arizona State Teaching license in December of 2003, and earned a Master of Divinity from Princeton Theological Seminary in 2007. Brandon has been married to Kristin for a little over nine years and they have two sons together, Micah (3.5) and Graham (1.5).

Brandon is called to serve God as a pastor and church leader but he is interested in many other areas of ministry including Christian camping, humanitarian and social services, Christian Education, workplace ministry, and Christianity and the arts, especially in the area of Christian music. The acoustic guitar is Brandon's favorite instrument and, while he enjoys playing guitar, he is a more naturally gifted singer and he has been known to sing passionately in any setting. Brandon was raised in a Christian home, has attended church gladly since he was three, and he became a member of the Presbyterian Church while enrolled in college in Flagstaff, Arizona. His decision to join the Presbyterian Church, rather than drift from it, at 20 years of age makes Brandon a rare anomaly and he is proud to be a part of the legacy of the Reformed tradition. When he is not playing with his boys, reading, teaching, singing, preaching, or working around the house, Brandon can be found enjoying the outdoors.
