Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC)

Report to the Congregation–

January 24, 2021

Members:

Kevin Kepler – Chair

Marla Phillips- Co-Chair/Secretary

Jordan Stilson – Internet Communicator

Deb Slagel – Member

Curtis Cauffman – Member

Dave Byerly - Alternate

Process:

The PNC started its work starting in March 2020 with a training session completed by the Yellowstone Presbytery. Our direct liaison for the Presbytery was Debbie Blackburn and Kathy Goodrich, executive presbyter, as senior advisor to our committee.

The first meetings enabled us to fully understand the dynamics of committee work and the stages that each committee works through. Our intent was and remains to first seek God's guidance in the process. We set regular meeting times (most every week from late March through the finish). These times included time for prayer and scripture. We kept in mind during our meetings a covenant agreement of confidentiality, self-awareness, respect for others, and to freely speak yet focused on God's will. (We did not want "group think" to prevail – but to move as God willed in His direction.)

Mission Information Form (MIF)

This document becomes the church's resume and advertisement on who we are and the characteristics in a Pastor our Church was seeking. This document took almost two months to fully complete. We utilized FPC Mission and Vision Statement and the Mission Study completed by you the congregation and a committee of three. This document laid down our congregational metrics and statics and those values most important and those challenges perceived.

Church Leadership Connection(CLC)- Pastor Information Form (PIF) matching

Jordan Stilson – as our internet communicator - input our MIF into the CLC for matching purposes. Electronically generated "matches" were provided to the PNC after a match was requested. This matching process compared values and similarities between the Pastor and our church. Items such as common theological traits, leadership, experience and location.

Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC)

Report to the Congregation–

January 24, 2021

We completed 22 matching requests, reviewed 161 CLC-referred, self-referred and forwarded PIFs over the period of seven months. We contacted 65 different pastors, conducted numerous reference checks, conducted 6 in-person “get to know” zoom sessions followed by 6 formal interviews.

Presbytery Partnership

As this is a three-way partnership throughout the pastoral call process, with the presbytery having the primary responsibility for oversight of the process, together with the congregation and the Pastor candidate. The Presbytery’s Pastor Ministry Team conducted 5 examinations for theology, membership into the Presbytery and “fit” for our church.

Visits

We offered 4 visits with 2 actual pastor visits to our community. During the pastor visits, the candidates were able to visit in small groups with the PNC members in social environments, explore and tour our community, tour the sanctuary and church property. We were extremely blessed to be able to worship with both pastors and spouses and ended each visit with a PNC/Pastor roundtable discussion.

Financial

Financially we were and are very blessed by congregation members named and anonymous who supported travel, car, and hospitality expenses. The congregation approved $2,000 for the search process to occur, with gifted money of an addition $4,000 if needed. Costs incurred including travel of pastor candidates to Lewistown, lodging, per diem, and car rental. Our total expenditure covering the entire search process to date is $1,820. Through gifts of travel miles for two sets of round trip tickets, use of personal vehicle and lodging (all anonymous) – the church realized $4,480 savings. Total cost of search in monetary dollars and gifted values equaled $6,300. These costs and values do not include welcome baskets and personal hospitality of pot luck and miscellaneous other meals by all members of the PNC.

An EEO/AA report is included and submitted to the Yellowstone Presbytery.

Extend of Call

On January 11, 2021, after prayerful discernment, we as a PNC – unanimous and without reservation - believed the Holy Spirit was leading us to Kimberly Briggs. On this date we extended an invitation for Kimmy to be presented to you the FPC congregation as our nominee for our next installed pastor.

Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC)

Report to the Congregation–

January 24, 2021

On the evening of January 13, 2021 Kimmy accepted our invitation. After visiting this community, discernment, prayer, and worshipping in this sanctuary with the PNC, Kimmy also believes, without reservation, the Holy Spirit is calling her to FPC.

Terms of Call – (Viewed at Annual Meeting)

Next Steps

January 24, 2021 – the session has called a congregational meeting to make two motions - 1st for Kimmy Briggs to be nominated and voted on as the Next Installed Pastor and 2nd – to approve the Terms of Call.

Pending the outcome of our actions at the Congregational meeting, Kimmy will be examined and voted on by Yellowstone Presbytery at a specially called zoom meeting on Feb 11.

Finally, Atlanta Presbytery must vote to dismiss her to Yellowstone Presbytery for the process to be complete.

Pending the outcome of these steps - Kimberly Stokesbary Briggs will start her Call on February 15, 2021.

Statement of Faith

In life and death, we belong to God, revealed in three persons, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Out of nothing, God created all things. Out of love, God sustains, rules and redeems the world. The Holy One is sovereign; everything works together to serve the divine will. We know God because in Jesus, God was revealed in human form.

Jesus is the Christ, the only Son of God, chosen by God as the world's Savior. He is fully God and fully man, revealing God's will by word and deed, modeling love and forgiveness. His obedience led to his death on a cross, but God raised him from the dead. Jesus ascended into heaven and will come again, in full glory, to judge the living and the dead.

We experience God's power and presence through the person and work of the Holy Spirit, who is to be trusted, loved, obeyed and worshipped. Reliance on the Spirit empowers us to live in faith as the Spirit calls, reconciles and equips us to serve God and neighbor. The Spirit is the divine tie binding believers together.

All people are created equally in the divine image to live in fellowship with God and others, but we rebel and justly deserve condemnation. We can do nothing about sin, yet God graciously reaches out with justice and mercy, inviting us by faith into a new covenant, redemption through Jesus.

God alone is the source of election, faith and salvation. God calls, pardons and transforms those who respond in faith. By the Spirit's power, believers have a new heart and a new spirit created in them. Faith is a new way of life filled with love, grace, peace and joy. God's power is present to resist sin and practice holiness.

The Church is universal, scattered around the world and extended to all times. It is entrusted with God's message of reconciliation and should be God's witness in the world. Christ calls the Church, empowered by the Spirit, to this mission. The Church gathers to be sent and is given all it needs for its mission.

The Bible is central to faith and life. It is the written Word of God, witnessing to Jesus Christ, the Word incarnate. The Scriptures teach about the character of God, the history of God's people, salvation through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus and the life of faith. Whenever Scripture is faithfully preached, the very Word of God is proclaimed. Confessions and creeds are subordinate in authority to Jesus Christ as the Scriptures bear witness to him.

The sacraments are visible signs of grace, commanded and instituted by Jesus for the worshipping community. Baptism is the sign and seal of belonging to Christ; it is our welcome into the Church. The waters of baptism symbolize regeneration, remission of sin and new life. The Lord's Supper recalls Jesus' sacrifice. The bread and cup point backward to Jesus, invite us to presently follow him and point to the future heavenly banquet prepared by God.

God's reign is both present and still to come. Therefore, we strive to serve Christ daily as we watch for God's new heaven and earth.

First Presbyterian Church – Lewistown, Montana
Sabbatical Leave Policy – Full Time Teaching Elder

Introduction:

Policy for Sabbatical Leave.

Sabbatical Leave is beneficial, both to ministry professional, and to this Church. Sabbatical Leave will help individuals to refocus their vision and find renewed sense of call. Often, Sabbatical leave is needed to find a new or intensive continuing educational experience not made possible in a shorter time period. Sabbath is the call from God in a busy world, and in the busy church. Sabbatical leave can offer valuable refreshment and rejuvenation for those who labor continuously for God's people, new vision for continued service, and renewed compassion for the beloved children of God who comprise the church. Sabbatical offers the church a time to reflect on their future, a time for members to exercise new gifts for service in the church, and for the church as a whole to renew its call as part of the priesthood of all believers.

Definition

Sabbatical Leave is a planned time of study and renewal by which one seeks personal and professional growth. It is an opportunity for an individual to disengage from regular and routine tasks so that their ministry may be viewed from a new perspective, and their soul renewed to serve refreshed. It is not a prolonged vacation. Through reflection, prayer, rest, study and travel, one finds the promise of God who sustains us through a period of reflection, leading to the renewal of energy upon the return to the permanent call.

Dialogue in Preparation for Sabbatical

Teaching elder and Session will dialogue together to come up with suitable forms of leave that will benefit all involved, and not place too much of a burden on the church, nor ignore the full need of the staff member. Sabbatical is incorporated in the Terms of Call.

1. Eligibility: Sabbatical Leave is a benefit offered at the discretion of the church, by the authority of the Session for the Teaching Elder. When Sabbatical leave involves a change in the Terms of Call, it is subject to the approval of the Session, the congregation, and the presbytery. FPC Lewistown Teaching Elder is eligible for Sabbatical Leave after seven (7) years of service within the congregation.

2. The Teaching Elder will bring a proposal to the personnel committee and/or the Session at least six months prior to the beginning of the proposed leave and prior to approval of the church budget for the calendar year when leave is to be taken. The proposal should include details on how the time will be used, proposed arrangements for covering the staff member's congregational duties, and any cost associated with the proposed leave.

3. Continuing Education money that has accrued for up to three (3) years may be used for the cost of Sabbatical.

First Presbyterian Church – Lewistown, Montana

Sabbatical Leave Policy – Full Time Teaching Elder

4. The time of Sabbatical is no less than three (3) months. The year it is taken shall include continuing education time, so that the staff member's continuing education time is the Sabbatical time. It will not include vacation time, so that the Teaching Elder's vacation time shall be intact.

5. Well before the leave begins, the Teaching Elder and the Personnel Committee/Session will inform the congregation about the Sabbatical. As the Sabbatical is included in the Terms of Call, the leave does not need approval by the Congregation. An explanation of the policy and the accepted plans for the leave period is appropriate.

6. The session will communicate with Yellowstone Presbytery for support before and during the time of the leave. Grants from outside agencies or institutions may be available to support the Sabbatical leave but are not widely available and are the responsibility of the Teaching Elder with assistance of the session and Yellowstone Presbytery. The presbytery is a resource for helping with staffing issues, pulpit supply, and pastoral care.

7. Upon completion of the Sabbatical Leave, at an acceptable time, the Teaching Elder will report to the Session and the congregation about the leave, including the value of the sabbatical leave.

Covenant between Pastor and Session

First Presbyterian Church, Lewistown, Montana

The following Covenant is between the FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF LEWISTOWN, MONTANA and Kimberly Stokesbary Briggs. It is for the purpose of providing a Covenant of support between the Pastor and the Church Leadership / Session.

Back Ground:

The session . . . has the responsibility . . . to provide for the administration of the program of the church, including employment of nonordained staff, with concern for equal employment opportunity, fair employment practices, personnel policies, and the annual review of the adequacy of compensation for all staff, including all employees. –Book of Order G-10.0102.

Ministers in the Presbyterian Church are called by the congregation to that work. They are not simply employees of the congregation or the session. They are responsible to the people of the congregation, of course, but not to them alone. The Presbyterian system of checks and balances gives them membership in, and a primary accountability to, the presbytery. They have been ordained to be Ministers of Word and Sacrament for the whole Church. (Each particular church, similarly, is linked to the larger church primarily through the presbytery, in which its minister and elder representatives have voting membership, and to which it has responsibilities.)

As a session works with staff and encourages the full use of the gifts and talents of each staff member, a shared ministry evolves. Valuing each person's worth and seeing the work of each as a part of the ministry of the church puts meaning into the words of the Book of Order: "The church of Jesus Christ is the provisional demonstration of what God intends for all of humanity. [As such,] the church is called to be a sign in and for the world of the new reality which God has made available to people in Jesus Christ." (G-3.0200) When a particular church treats each staff member as a valued partner in ministry, it becomes a sign to the world of a new reality. These guidelines are provided with this concept of ministry in mind.

Covenant:

First Presbyterian Church Pastor

1)As Gods Called Pastor to First Presbyterian Church will seek to perform duties within the guidelines of the Presbytery USA book of order and First Presbyterian Church policies and Job descriptions.

2)Continually assess viability of programs with session committees and freely move to make changes with session committees' guidance and input.

Rev. Charley Blom, H.R. Faith Statement & Brief Background

Brief Background

An Honorably Retired member of Plains and Peaks Presbytery (CO), Charley has been finishing as Interim Pastor at Timnath Presbyterian Church. He has pastored several congregations over the years in Colorado, Wisconsin, California and South Dakota, more recently focusing on intentional transitions. He also helped direct Mountain Top Retreat Center south of Bozeman a long time ago. “I love and value the local congregation and seek to strengthen the impact on our culture through the local church. The best place to focus my energies for the kingdom and the health of God’s servants is in helping churches through the transition time between pastors.”

He is a graduate of Hastings College and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, M.Div. Charley and his wife have family who live in the greater Billings region.

Statement of Faith

“My faith is based simply on the Apostles’ Creed. This is the bedrock of my life and ministry. In addition to the Creed, I love the statement from the first question of the Heidelberg Catechism. These two statements form and shape my faith, life and ministry.

Q. What is your only comfort in life and in death?

A. That I am not my own, but belong body and soul, in life and in death to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from the tyranny of the devil. He also watches over me in such a way that not a hair can fall from my head without the will of my Father in heaven; in fact, all things must work together for my salvation. Because I belong to him, Christ, by his Holy Spirit, assures me of eternal life and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.”
