

Representation/Nominations Team Report

February 21, 2022

The Pastoral Ministry Team currently has 2 vacancies. Upon request of the team's moderator, the Representation/Nominations team convened to seek persons to serve on this team with the gifts and experience needed on the team. We are pleased to nominate the following two persons who have graciously agreed to serve.

Class of 2024

RE Debbie Ernst (Bozeman)

MWS Freeman McCall (Dillon, Honorably Retired)

Debbie Ernst, RE, FPC Bozeman, is originally from FPC Stanford. Debbie Ernst spent her career working in accounting for the federal government and has been an active member of the Bozeman congregation, its music ministries, session, finance committee, is a PresbyCat supporter, and Co-Chair of the recent Interim Pastor Nominating Committee which nominated Rev. Ashley Birk.

Rev. Freeman McCall, Hon. Retired, from FPC Dillon, has been an active member of Yellowstone Presbytery, served previously on the Committee on Ministry, as a mentor and now as pulpit supply in the western part of the presbytery. For the last several years he has been the faithful caretaker for his beloved wife, Suzy, who passed away last winter.

Respectfully submitted,

Jody McDevitt, moderator

Terry Johnson, Sandy Welch, and Teresa Kendall team members