

We welcome Rev. David Ezekiel, NEW INTERIM Executive for our Synod of the Rocky Mountains who will join us @ our May Presbytery meeting

February 17, the Synod Council unanimously selected the Rev. David Ezekiel to be our new Interim Synod Executive. David will begin work on May 1st. He is currently completing a three year interim at St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Elgin, IL. Prior to this interim, David served four years as the Associate Executive Presbyter for Congregational Development in the Presbytery of Chicago, Chicago, IL.

David was raised a Baptist and received his Master of Divinity in 1983 from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY. He served two Baptist churches, but soon realized that this was not a right fit for him. He quit the Baptist church and joined a Presbyterian church. The people at this Presbyterian Church urged him to become a Presbyterian pastor, so he took the Presbyterian ordination exams and became the pastor of Unity Presbyterian Church, Weogufka, AL for four years. He served as pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, TN for three years. For one year he served as Mission Design Strategist for the Presbytery of East Tennessee before becoming the Stated Supply pastor for three years at Renaissance Presbyterian Church, Chattanooga, TN. Then David became the Associate Executive Presbyter for Congregational Development in the Presbytery of Chicago.

In 2011, David is anticipating completing his Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) with a majority emphasis in New Church Development at Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, GA.
