THEOLOGICAL FOUNDATIONS DURING TURBULENT TIMES
Theological Foundations during Turbulent Times

Register for the 37th annual Whitworth Institute of Ministry, July 9-13, 2012, at www.whitworth.edu/wim

Tension has always been present in the church, sometimes from internal theological disagreements and at other times from threats incubated in external host cultures. Many Christian leaders today experience these dual tensions. In turbulent times, as church leaders have envisioned a trajectory for adaptive change, they have found strength, wisdom and guidance from those who have gone before. What can we learn from our past that will help us lead better in the future as we strive to live faithfully in our commitments to the gospel and to the church?

J. Mouw, president and professor of Christian philosophy at Fuller Theological Seminary, will preach at Evening Worship on "The Authority of the Lamb for a Postmodern Culture." Morse, professor of leadership and spiritual formation at George Fox Evangelical Seminary (Portland, Ore.) will lead our Bible Hour, speaking each morning from Jesus' parables and from Romans 12 on the theme of "Jesus' Kingdom Theology as the Foundation for Christ-Centered Change." Bolsinger, senior pastor at San Clemente (Calif.) Presbyterian Church, will lead the track on Ecclesiology: "As It is in Heaven? The Church and Our Churches."

In addition, we are thrilled to offer several seminar tracks for those who wish to focus specifically on the following topics:
The perspectives and questions of younger pastors: "Leading On in Times of Change" will be led by Mindy Smith, campus pastor at Whitworth University, and Jerry Deck, executive director of Presbyterian Global Fellowship.

Worship leadership: "Let All Creation Sing! Singing and Leading Music from the Church Universal," will be led by Ben Brody, associate professor of music at Whitworth University, and members of the WIM music leadership team.

We'd love to host you on Whitworth's beautiful campus this summer. WIM registration is now open. Visit www.whitworth.edu/wim.
For more information, contact Toni Sutherland at tsutherland@whitworth.edu or 509.777.4345.

A new program focusing on training elders will be held in conjunction with WIM beginning 2013. To find out more information visit the Elder Leadership Institute (ELI) website at www.whitworth.edu/eli.
Registration is now open for this event.
